My dear Sir

Comt. Jan. 12/18

I ship being on the eve of leaving Allepie for Bengal & from thence to England, I embrace this opportunity to forward to you my journal up to the present period. You will see that we are not yet settled, I fear, it will be 2 or 3 months before this will take place; I have never expect a letter from the President on the subject every day. As nothing particular has taken place since you receive my last journal, this is very concise, but I thought it best to send it, meeting with this opportunity.

I would you, dear Sir, have the goodness to forward ^{£50.} as early as possible to my father, Mr. Gaily, at Dunsbury, on my account, & having written to him for some European articles. ~~You will~~ The
