

Samuel Marsden to CMS Secretary Josiah Pratt

Sydney Nov^r 21th 1821

Rev^d Sir

Should the Bearer M^r Lusk return to the Colony in the Brintin as master and you have any thing to send out he appears to be a very careful steady man, and may be depended upon— The Passangers [sic] give him an excellent Character for his kindness and Attentions. I therefore have taken the Liberty to recommend him—

I am

D^r Sir

Yours faithfully

S. Marsden

Rev^d J. Pratt
