

my on a visit to Mrs. Williams, who expected to be called every day - we arrived in the evening, where we were welcomed by the Rev. W. Williams and his lady - I had only left them the day before under a promise to return immediately, I had arranged the plan for the Rev. G. Butler to ^{quit} return. The local situation of Mrs. Williams Station is most beautiful; and the natives very well behaved - They are as quiet, and feel themselves as secure as if they were in any part of England - I have no doubt, but they will be blessed in their work.

Nov 2. I spent this Sabbath with Curlew at Pyhea, where I preached & administered the Sacrament - and administered a little may have since we arrived, belonging to the Carpenter Mr. Pambarr - our congregation of Europeans was but small only eleven besides natives - yet we found it good to wait upon the Lord. I always feel comfortable at Pyhea - A Church I hope will be raised here against which the gates of Hell will never prevail.

Nov 3. This morning I purposed to visit Kiddee Kiddee to arrange with the missionaries for making the Enquiry into the Charge against the Rev. G. Butler - I had to wait until Mr. Moore came from Motonou with the Boat - He arrived about 10 o'clock. From Pyhea we went on toward the Trayor, where I unexpectedly met the Rev. G.
Rendall & Butler, with Mr. King - Mr. Rendall was very distant - There were two of the Brothers of the young woman on board, with whom Mr.
Rendall had cohabited - one of them appeared very indignant and angry with me - I asked him how he did - he turned with savage disdain from me -
