

May 15/13

5

I have received a letter signed by six Clergymen at Bristol, namely, The Rev^d G. M. W.
J. Carter, W. Day, H. Bevan, Edw. Colston, & J. D. W. recommending to my notice a youth whose name is Rich^d Stockwell. Captain Mitchell has put him under my care as a servant and he is now released from confinement the whole of the Day. I am happy to learn that this youth, has conducted himself well ever since he was a prisoner, which I believe is now nearly two Years. He used to be one of the principal singers when he was on board the Hulk at Woolwich during the time of Divine Service. He appears to have been piously educated & brought up, and I am told by some sick persons who lie in the Hospital, and who also manifest a real concern for their own eternal