

June 18/13

I see from the public Papers that the Frederick whaler belonging to Mr W^m Wilson was taken. She was commanded by a Mr Godie - The son of Dispatch was on board - This young man lived with me. and was taken by Captain Godie against his will on board the Frederick or at least detained after I had shipped him under his solemn Promise to land him at New Zealand.
Godie landed Quaterma at Norfolk Island, but would not allow his Companion to quit the Boat tho' he most earnestly intreated him to ^{allow him to} go with Quaterma, and wept much. This Information I received from Quaterma, when he returned to Port Jackson previous to his going on board the last vessel that took him to his native Land.
Mr Wilson perhaps may be able to give some Account of this young man - whether he was killed in the action when the ~~Frederick~~ Frederick was taken, or was taken Prisoner. Should he be in London, it would be an act of great Kindness to put him on board any vessel coming to
