22 Honor of God is consulted you may expect success. But remember man is weak! Let us therefore look up to God. It is very cheering to the pious minds that the Captain of our Salvation is still adding victory to victory. When he has reigned until he has put all his enemies under his feet then He will come! Then he will gather together his people! They who have sown to his praise on Earth shall reap with him in Heaven.

My wife writes in affectionate regards to you, Mrs Woodd, and the whole family, and am

Res & Dear Sir,

Sincerely & Faithfully Yours
