The Publications, in the Sydney Gazette, are meant, to convey, in addition to the Notifications of Government itself, such useful information as the Editor can collect, so as to fill his Pages and render them at Once useful and interesting; And much care has been taken to prevent the Gazette from becoming the Medium of Slander or illeberal attacks upon any Individual, within the Period of my Administration of this Government.

The Series of Letters which appeared in the Gazette, commencing with the Paper of the 5th Ult. and ending with that of the 2nd Instant, in which are included those of which you complain, certainly did not appear to me of that offensive Personal Nature, which you consider them, else I should have made the Editor answerable for their insertion. -

This, however, being matter of opinion, in which I may be Mistaken, I see only One Mode of Redress to which you can resort, which
