

38. instructions in one particular, I readily consented that he should have the privilege of sometimes reading upon Deck upon the Sabbath Day the Prayers of the Church. In little matters it is best to concede to each other Opinions. Our main object should be that the glorious name of the ever blessed Jesus may be magnified by us, and that peace and harmony and Christian concord may characterize our plans for promoting the Kingdom.

Nothing particular transpired from the fourteenth of March (the day of our departure from Port Jackson) until a few days after our arrival at Hobart, Van Dieman Land when we were visited by Marsablu a young Native of the Bay of Islands who was very desirous to accompany us in the return thither. He told us he wanted to pay a visit to his mother, and to his Mother and Sister whom he had not seen of some years, but Marsablu had unfortunately signed an article to serve on the Brig-Young which was bound to Port Delapoupe and Port Jackson and another the owner of the vessel was the Captain were apparently willing to part with him. On Wednesday May 11th Moses another native of the Bay of Islands was sent on board to us by Captain Dillon. He had formerly lived with the Mill and hearing of us while he was at Port Delapoupe, he quitted his ship & came