

to that usual mode of retaliation which the Natives adopt after receiving an injury. And with respect to the New Zealanders it is well known that after they have been some time from their home they are exceedingly desirous to return and every untimely disappointment of their wishes tends greatly to excite their resentment. It cannot be supposed that they are acquainted with the binding nature of an Treaty at the time they sign it, and they must in certain cases on this very account bear the constraint a great hardship upon them. I therefore humbly request you will use your authority and influence in behalf of Moora as this may possibly be the only opportunity he may have for some years to come of visiting his near relations and his native Land. And am. Sir

Your very obliged and Obedient Servant
 J. Kendall
 His Honor's Governour's Duty
 New Zealand

No 2

Bay of Islands Hobart 20 May 1811

Sir
 I shall esteem it a particular favor if you will use your influence in behalf of Moora, a Native of New Zealand who has made Application for a passage on board the Regal but against whom a Debarment is