Superintendent willing to spare him altogether. I offered to pay anything in reason as a compensation for additional labour which they might be under the necessity of giving to another person for three months to come. I hope you will take care of Brandtlee as soon as the Spring comes and not suffer him to be taken to England against his will. We should feel grateful if you would have your vessel cleared to bring Brandtlee with us as he felt the disappointment severely Mr Dawson Colonial Secretary Parramatta

Before I close this Letter Dennett asked the favour of receiving a letter from Mrs Kendall of which the following is a Copy.

Parramatta 19th March 1814

My Dearest

How can I express my thanks to you for your kindness to me while there lines to you you are all much on my mind they would find you.
I got better spirits than I had when you first left me I was low and ill, but I hope God would protect you and send you safe to your family.

All the Children have had very bad eyes. Thomas was quite blind but they are now better.

Richard Fidoe behaves himself very well and is very attentive. He is very busy in the Garden.

Mrs Marsden & family very frequently pay me a visit.
