

His Excellency Governor Macquarie intends to transmit. Governor Macquarie is fully satisfied that much may be done for the improvement of the Natives of that Island; and has given me his full sanction to visit the Island with the Mission-aries, and ~~the~~ ^{the} Chiefs, who are at present living with me. His Excellency has been kind enough to victual the Chiefs, and their attendants from His Majesty's Stores, during their stay in this settlement, which is the most favorable testimony of his appro-bation, and will very considerably lessen the Expenses of their support. His Excellency hath further mani-fested his good will, by promising on the Natives return, to present each of the Chiefs with a new suit of cloths, their coats to be made of scarlet cloth, and each of our from His Majesty's Herds, from what has taken place, and from present appearances I trust the Society will be fully satisfied, that there is now a fair opening at New Zealand for the introduction of the everlasting Gospel of our Blessed Lord, and I most ardently pray that
