

Expenses of the Active

The Wages of the Master, and Mate of the Active will appear high, but they are the same that are commonly paid out of this Port— the number of men also were greater than will be necessary in future, as I wished in the first Instance to guard against the Vessel been [sic] taken, should any Circumstances have taken Place at the Bay of Islands which had not reached this Colony —