✓ Thread Latticed in the New Zealand Style.
✓ 1 Upper garment 1 parcel Thread & more for the Rev. G. Hunt lecturer of All Saints, Bristol.

✓ 1 small parcel for Mr. Laithe Taylor & Co. Regent Street Portman St.
I have in my hands for the British and Foreign Bible Society the sum of three pounds one shilling & five pence & for the Naval and military Bible Society the sum of five pounds twelve shillings & nine pence which I intend to transmit the first opportunity. My acct with Mr. Woodd is closed and I shd. have drawn upon him for the amount.

As Mr. Gale has now received his salary from Mr. Musserden, I am sorry I requested you to send him an investment as it would not be right to mislead you.

I would recommend you to procure if you can some Bibles, Testaments, Tracts &c. for the Rev. Mr. Cooper of Sydney who will distribute them to advantage. He pays great attention to the religious instruction of youth in the schools at Sydney. He tells me the children are going on exceedingly well with Mr. Woodd's catechisms with which I was furnished when I left England. I have heard the female Aphas repeat the Introduction very correctly.

Be pleased to enclose for me at least 10 copies of the Missionary Register for New Zealand. The remaining 40 you had better send to Mr Cooper Sydney who will supply the diff. Clergymen &c in the Colony. I will thank you for a large Octavo Prayer Book. To prevent mistakes after my arrival at New Zealand Be pleased to send me an account of any thing you may send for us directed to the care of Mr Marsden or any one else. We shall be very much in of a Pious Blacksmith. He would do well at New

I trust J. Messers Hale & King shall agree very well, shall do all I can to promote harmony & peace. I shall embrace every opportunity of acquainting you how we go on.

I bless God I am much better in health than I was when first embarked for New Zealand. My family are also well - I am Revd & Dear P. never mind the weight if you have not sent it I am not anxious about it Your faithful Servant
W. Kendall
