August 10/15

My dear Sir

Since my last to you, of Dec 6/14, by the Northampton, a duplicate of which was sent by the Dawson, Jan 28/15, we have rec<sup>d</sup> yours of March 25/15, Sep 9/14, and Oct 3/14, with the curiosities, and <sup>the</sup> specimens of Kingkees's writing.

I have distributed all the curiosities, as directed. We were much pleased with them. Kingkees's head, sent us by Mr Charles, attracts great attention. Pray continue to send all that you can procure, for our Museum, and give us a description of their use.

I refer you to my last for whatever respects your mode of support. Doubtless the representatives of the Society in ~~the~~ South Wales will consult, to the utmost, your comfort and your peace. We are well aware that human infirmity will discover itself in good men; and we wish, therefore, that every reasonable provision should be made for your living independent one of another, unless in cases where you may of yourselves wish to live in common.

Be so kind as to write all your New Zealand words quite plain. The language being altogether unknown to us, we cannot easily make out some of the words.

A man, named George Bruce, of whom you have doubtless heard, has been frequently with us. We have clothed him and supported him for some weeks and have placed him under instruction with the intention
