

for my salary from Dec. 31st 1815 to Dec. 31st 1816^{or} until I have your answer to this letter.

I intend to let my two daughters continue with Mrs. Mosby another year. If I can then with prudence take them away I shall do it.

I have only to add with respect to any pecuniary transaction which I may have in future with the Society, I shall put you to as little trouble as I possibly can. You could send me sort an Investment to the amount of a years salary at once in such articles as are generally useful in a family and by this means much trouble would be avoided in collecting together detached accounts. I have drawn my salary of Mr. Muddler up to Dec. 31st next, and my letters being sent unsealed to New York waits for Mr. Muddler's inspection he will see and approve of what I am doing. I shall want a portion of fishhooks, knives, and little
