

I have now received all the extra favors I can wish for at present from the Society. I have only to request that I may have my salary and out in such article of clothing and comfort as I think may be needful during such time as it pleases God to give me grace to use my feeble efforts in promoting the great objects of the Society. My colleagues would I believe wish to have the same indulgence. If they have it will be much better for our different portions to be kept apart. Altho' it will perhaps be attended with more trouble to you, yet it would be better to have it done than to dispute about trifles here. If you have not already sent out an investment I shall be glad if you will send for my use a care or two of Port Wine and charge the same to my Account.
 It will be very useful here in the winter. Mrs Prudden is very weak and unequal without support to the work she has to do. You can
