and my articles in Iron bound Casks directed to the care of Mr Cooper or Mr Musden. If my name is upon the Cask Mr Musden or Mr Cooper will not suffer it to be opened at Port Jackson.

You will be pleased not to forget to order the three Wigs I have before mentioned. The Peruke maker will be careful to make them large enough. My head is 21 inches in circumference and from the Forehead to the back of the neck is thirteen inches.

I do not intend to draw upon Mr Musden for my salary from Dec. 31st 1815 to Dec. 31st 1818 until I have your answer to the letter.

I intend to let my two daughters continue with Mrs Worthing another year. If I can then with prudence take them a way I shall do it.

I have only to add with respect to my pecuniary transactions which I may have in
