

could ~~see~~ he was ~~immediately~~ supplied with such things as he thought he could take for his nourishment. ^{for which} He expressed great thankfulness for every little favor ~~that~~ ~~was~~ ~~conferred~~ ~~upon~~ ~~him~~ ~~in~~ ~~this~~ ~~way~~. ~~and~~ ~~expressed~~ ~~of~~ but complained of "want of breath" and bodily weakness and pain. I had not repeated my visits about two or three times before the Priest told me he would ~~not~~ live, and on Thursday March the 2nd he was conveyed from the Village upon a kind of Pier to a hill at Tippoona upon which in his life time he had ^{to you} proposed, a town should be built, a shed having been previously prepared for his reception, and there he was to die. For it is customary at New Zealand not to suffer a Native to die in one of the villages; the Natives say, ~~that~~ if this should be allowed they would be angry, and a heavy calamity would befall them. When Quatera perceived the time of his departure he had he directed his little property to be distributed amongst his surviving relations ~~in~~ ~~a~~ ~~specific~~ ~~manner~~.
