

~~xx~~ ~~xxxx~~. The Cow which His Excellency Governor Macquarie had given him and her calf he bequeathed to the widow of the late Tippahoe and the military Surgeon was to be taken care of for his infant son whom he commended to my notice requesting him to be sent to you as soon as he should be sufficiently strong to endure the passage and to be brought up in the orphan school at Sydney. He desired his wife to admonish Mance and Quana and the people of Tippooona to be kind to us all when he was gone. Quatera only laid one night in the Bush, he died on Friday March the 3rd early in the morning. The Chiefs Hangocha and Shinghe and the near relations of the deceased were immediately sent for. I was present at ^{the} time of Hangocha and Shinghe's arrival; the latter had been particularly attached to his nephew & he saluted me with many tears. The corpse which was wrapped up neatly with the garments of the owner, his feet being gathered up, was placed in a sitting posture. The brow of the head was emulsed
