

Numbers could not have been less than one ²³⁰ ⁹¹ thousand men employed at board & bays.

I have also to return my most hearty thanks to my noble little ship's company who at all times obeyed any orders I gave them and acted with that coolness as is natural and generally observed in Englishmen.

I have further to hope your Honors you will make them some compensation for the loss of their clothes &c when the Brig returns to Port Jackson again.

I remain your Honors
