

serious disputes arising amongst us to obstruct our progressive advancement after a good beginning The Eye of that glorious heaven whose servants we are in an especial manner profess to be is also upon us. In his last fervent prayer he entreated the Father to preserve his Apostles in unity and truth. With what complacency must he behold those that are engaged in the enlargement of his Kingdom when they dwell in mutual Love.

I trust you will admit the necessity of the above observations. To ever professing Godliness it is right to explain in Christian terms. We can never expect to be right with haters of religion.

You have sent me word by my child that you will make shoes for my family