

94 The reform from work in general & are in a state of reformation; if all eyes were you see but little of religion, they have no knowledge of God or of his ways, there is work to be done, but few to do it, if faithful labours come out I have no doubt, but the good will be done according to their diligent & zeal, men of true piety honest & sober minded active & upright in conversation, patience must have her perfect work not to expect any worldly gain, if worldly gain, or worldly ease is their motive it will eat up all their time and thoughts, labourers are the characters we are to pray may be sent into the harvest, If Labourers, or Traders men, or Schoolmasters, or Ministers waste come out they would not make work scarce but nothing without ^{the especial blessing of God, thro' Christ Jesus} could be done without, in the great work of saving sinners, the gods gift to us is eternal life, yet we are to strive to enter in at the narrow gate as it is gods will to have his Gospel preached to every creature, I doubt not but he that striveth faithfully and lawfully will meet with his blessing, and if any good is done here or elsewhere we will ^{not} write us not unto us O Lord but unto thy Name be glory for ever Amen