

Present.

L^d Arcy Wentworth
W^m Broughton
Alexander Riley
Simon Lord

Esquires

William Hanky sworn, says he belonged to the Ship King George, upon the last cruise, - was in her off the Cape of New Zealand in Company with the Jefferson whaler, each vessel received some supplies of Figs and Potatoes from the shore at that time; witness believes they were obtained from the friends of Iem the Otahutan, - recollects that at that time Iem and Kangaroo came on board the King George and remaining on board two or three nights. Cant say whether both went on shore together - witness dont recollect whether he went on shore after that, but believes he did not - believes Kangaroo went from the King George to the shore and took with him, a coat belonging to Captain Jones, who witness heard complain, that Kangaroo had done so - but cant say whether it was after the potatoes and figs had been received on board - Dont recollect that Kangaroo came on board more than once - does not recollect whether Kangaroo was put on board the Jefferson from the King George - I says Iem the Otahutan was, and to best of witnesses recollection Iem was put on ~~board~~ shore the following day from the Jefferson in one of the