by pickets, and Handbills or bound. The different whalers and other vessels to the very mouth of the harbor, and landed at Port Jackson in want of all things. I do not expect now that any thing will be done by that Society for the benefit of the Natives of these Islands; and for certain Reasons. was a Society here to act, it would be a Check upon that plundering, murdering system, which has so long disgraced the European name amongst the Inhabitants of these Islands; but this would wound the Interest & Honor of Individuals of some weight and Influence. — I mention these Things to show that at present we can form no public auxiliary Society we are not strong enough. Besides there are other Reasons which operate against it at present, but may be removed in a little time. I herewith send you a Copy of ~~all~~ all the Proceedings I could get taken at the general meeting last October. The Quarters attended the meeting, and wished to know the Cause of the Death of the man whom he had committed to the Care of the Master; and several of the Crew belonging to the Cumberland had been killed, and one mangled, yet the matter would not bear examination. The whole was pushed up in silence and renunciation to this very Day. All that Quarters
