Water, and having no European but myself I cannot have the place with propriety to fetch woad from the Smiths so that I have been very much distressed for want of some - I mention in a former letter respecting a little coarse cloathing for my domesticated Natives that I keep constantly employed and situated If your Committee should think proper to send these things or any of them be so kind as to pack my part by itself and direct it for me at Lytham so that there can no dispute arise in the division of them — My Tools are much exposed by working amongst the Natives they frequently annoy me by pilfering them, but there is no redress, but by replacing them - they have stole several of my Tools lately but I dare not
