which will be very useful in the settlement I think if a Missionary comes out shortly he ought to be instructed a little in the art of Printing, perhaps I might be able to lend him some assistance. I should have no objection to contribute Thirty Pounds towards a small Printing Press if the Society would bear the cost.

I have directed some enquiry to be made after the house of my successor in Great Duke Street. I mean to make him a small present if he has suffered materially by his bargain.

Be pleased to enclose an order for two pounds in the letter addressed to Joseph Quickfall Kirmington Lincolnshire, & I will take care to repay it. And am

Believe me Dear Sir
