

all men did yet the Great Spirit gave his Son Jesus Christ ^{for us} and those who believe that & pray to him their spirits would live and be happy.
I do not think he could understand what I said being quite a new subject to him, but it is best to declare my errand as well as I can, trusting as I do, that the same gracious Providence will enable me or some one after me to speak concerning him in a clearer manner. I ordered some Sage and Tea to be given to the sick person who had been without food three days, after taking of which he appeared a little revived.

Saturday 22nd As I was passing through the village I was requested by some natives, to visit a boy about 13 or 14 years of age, who appeared to be in a consumption.
He had caught a violent cold which had settled upon his Lungs. I ordered him to come down to my house and gave him some food and medicine.

In a little time he recovered

Sunday 23rd I and Mr Kendall took a walk in the afternoon to see the people mourning over the woods who died early in the morning.
The Corpse was placed and decorated as usual as the people came to cry they knelt down in a row in front of the dead body.

Monday 24 July. I was invited to visit my Friend Wanee who had been ill some months. He appeared to be in a rapid decline coughing & spitting very
