to M. House, London Sep 5/16

My Dear Sir, I hope you have long ere this received mine by the Ocean, with the Investment sent by that Vessel.

I have to acknowledge the safe arrival of your dispatches by the Sydney Packet; and that of those also, this very day, by the Northampton.

By the Sir William Bensley we send another Investment. The Invoice and Inventory of which are enclosed. I hope also to enclose the Bill of Lading; but it was left on board, with the Mate, at Deptford and is not yet sent up.

Copies of the M Register up to July last are on board, since they were sent the August number has been published; but, as the friend by whom we send this packet cannot take much luggage, we are able to send you now only a few copies of that Number. To this work, and to the copies of our last Report on board the Sir W. B., we must refer you and the other friends of the Society for full information respecting the proceedings of our Institution.

I will reply, to the various parts of your correspondence, ~~which~~ which require replies.

We have printed, as you will see, Mr Campbell's official, to you of Nov. 17/14, with your Report; and are preparing to print your Public Letter. The Comtee and our friends are warmly interested by your reports of New Zealand. The rejoice in your safety and success. Mowhee, mentioned among the crew of the Active, is come to this country; we have placed him, for instruction, under the care of the Rev. Basil Woodd; and, had we known that you had adapted our hint of a New Zealand Seminary in New South Wales in sufficient time, we should have probably have got him a passage by the Sir W. Bensley. It seems right, however, that a check should be
