

here might be supported with much less ease and in comfort if we could do without a vessel. I do not know how to advise for the best. Mr. Morgan I fear is embarrassed in his affairs. He has few friends in New South Wales to help him. I believe his heart design is to promote the spiritual and temporal welfare of the Natives of the South Sea Islands, but he seems to have almost ventured beyond his depth before he could know the mind of the Comm^{ee} & to what extent it would encourage his views and proceedings. I hope he has been relieved before this. I pray that the Hearts of the People of God may be opened in behalf of these poor Heathens.

You will be glad to hear that Walter Hall has taken his passage in the King George for Port Jackson so that in a day or two I expect the Settlement
