

will be at peace. He has been tolerably quiet since the time I was with him in the shop. He has asserted before that if Governor Macquarie would not give him his free pardon he would by his influence with the natives drive every missionary settler back to Port Jackson. Deluded Mortal. Thought we vain against the Lord." The natives instead of taking his part against us, encourage him to leave the Island.

I expect the native from Portcrite in a week or two from this date. When we shall have a vessel from Port Jackson I know not. My dear Sir. I long to hear from you. I want to know how you wish me to go on - Give my Christian Love to the Gentlemen who meet at St Johns Chapel. And my kind & Dear

I want Barris Justice

Your faithful servant
