immediately seek revenge for any injury offered to any of the people I had left. Mr. Hall had employed the Surveyors to build his House at Whytby, and neglected the whole of what he ought to have done, and incurred a heavy loss to me, and also great Expense to the Society - when the Active returned and brought me these distressing Accounts, as I was sure something serious would happen, I knew not what to do - Mr. Hall had too much Property to live in a lonely Place, 10 miles from the Settlement without Danger - he would have been murdered even in this Colony, in fact, not but so exposed to Danger - I trembled for the Consequences.
At length Information arrived that Mr. Hall had been robbed and Mr. Hall had been wounded - and that he had been compelled to return to the Settlement - The Chiefs rose in every Direction to revenge the Injury; and destroyed the Houses of those who had come to rob Mr. Hall; and some of them wanted their Countrymen to be put to death - The head Chief recommended that they should not die, but be punished some other way, and the business ended - The workmen had lost their Property, and claimed Remuneration, and at Mr.
Hendalls Request I have paid them - All the buildings and other ~~materials~~ materials, which the workmen and Mr. Hall had now built at Whytby, were were an expense that was now lost
