

General remarks for January 1817

January 2nd Arrived the Adamant, Elder, Master which anchored on the other side of the Bay 6 miles distant from us.

January 3. Arrived the Brig, Daphne, Campbell master & owner which came to an anchor near us. Interruptions

January 4th Took the female scholars on board the Daphne to see the vessel for about half an hour. None were with the sailors below either in this vessel, or in the Adamant or Queen Charlotte. They seemed perfectly content to quit the Daphne with me.

January 5. Visited by the chiefs Pomaree, Kurokuro, a chief from the River Thames, Shunghee, Tabraha and large parties of attendants with each, who all conducted themselves towards each other and us in the most friendly manner. The Chiefs Teppoohee and Taara of Wangara also paid us a visit. I introduced them to the Captain of the Daphne being the only vessel they have been on board of (except the lecture) since the unhappy destruction of the Boyde.
