Church Miss. Y. House London
Nov. 27/17.

Dear Sir

I wrote to you on the 7th of June, since which times we have not heard from you.

We hope from Mr. Marsden's letters, that we shall soon hear from you. We wish you to write regularly & frequently, for our friends as well as ourselves are anxious to know how you go on.

The cause of the Society is gaining ground in every quarter of the Kingdom; & Christians daily feel more than ever, that the true character of the Church of Christ is that of a missionary Church. Hence an increasing interest is felt in all our Miss. Y. Stations. The Register is continually searched by many for tidings from New Zealand; Mr. Marsden's narrative having excited great interest in behalf of the New Zealanders. Enable us then to communicate good tidings; if not of your success, yet, of your patient, persevering, & faithful labours of love amongst them.

I am sorry to say, that the Navy Office will not allow us to send you the packing piece & powder, which you have requested. If we are able, we shall be glad to send them by another opportunity. We send you a few registers, which will convey to you all the information you want concerning the Society.

We meet every Saturday Evening to ask the divine blessing on Missionary Executions. Our Missionaries in Africa & in India do the same & we should be
