Irby April 4th 1818

Dear Brother & Sister

I saw M^{rs} Quickfall at Swallow a few days back, they are all well, she desired I would call on M^r William Frith of Great Grimsby, his wife being the Administratrix of the late Thomas Quickfall. I have sent you from his Attorney what follows, that is Kendall & Wife to send a power of Attorney to receive the money £81.19. 8 & to give a Receipt for same being his wife's distributive share of the Effects of Thomas Quickfall late of Brocklesby in the County of Lincoln & House Steward of the Right Hon. Lord Yarborough Batchelor deceased Intestate the late Administratrix is Mary Frith the wife of William frith the neice [sic] and one of the persons entitled in distribution to the personal estate & Effects of the said Thomas Quickfall—

The Execution of the Power of Attorney must be duly attested by the Governor & some other respectable people to prove that M^{rs}-Kendall is alive as you understand giving the Power of Attorney. I need say nothing about it only let it have plenty of Witnesses that it cannot be objected when it comes to Great Grimsby.

I rec[eive]^d yours dated Dec 6th 1816 I am glad to hear that you are in good health, & lives in plenty & is satisfy'd in your minds but the ever blessed & adoreable [sic] Jesus can make His Creatures happy [f] be they wherever they may
