

it quite charmed them when they were sleeping, and all the new Zealanders were very fond of them - On the arrival of the David Shaw, you will have the goodness to enquire after the things I have sent. The letters I have forwarded under cover to the owners for safety as I am afraid of their being lost, which is the case some times in such a country as this.
 Mrs. Cartwright returns by the David Shaw. whether she will come out again or not I cannot tell. I have requested her to wait upon you when in London -

P.S. I expect the Active will sail in three days for N. Zealand it supposes I cannot send the Accounts of this time Rev. J. Pratt.

I am
 Dear Sir
 Yours affectionately
