

I would ask, what right has Mr Campbell as your Excellency's private Secretary to speak thus with my feelings and Character "on His Majesty's Service?" deeply impressed with a sense of spath, Injuries, and continued Provocation, I now call upon your Excellency for present redress, and future Protection - Should your Excellency after the Statement, I have made, be of opinion that I have no sufficient Grounds for preferring my present Complaint, allow me to renew my application for leave to retire at once from the Colony, where without your Excellency's Protection, I have no present prospect of remaining a single day in Comfort.

I have the honor to be
 Your Excellency's most obed.<sup>t</sup>
 Humble Servant.
