

Pirates, murderers, and Thieves - I have ⁹¹merely sent the Documents to furnish my Friends with a Copy, in case any Attack should be made upon me in that Quarter, so as to injure mine the good opinion of His maj estys Government - I am compelled to guard every Point, to watch the movements of the Enemy every Day. what will be the Issue of this continual Warfare I cannot say. I am in the very Front of the Battle; and cannot run away - and am therefore compelled to conquer or die - As Captain Welch was on the spot, I beg to refer you to him, or any Reference be necessary, who will give the Society any Information they may require. I am sorry to be so troublesome to you, but there is no Alternative for me, but to make my Case known to the Society, I believe there never existed a greater Enemy to the Gospel, than my present Vice. and he will never change his Conduct, but will seize every occasion, however trifling to annoy - I am happy that all goes on
