Dear Sir

Com. Oct. 12/10

X

I so pleased and very glad when Mr. Hall read me your letter: Very nice letter. The water run down my eye when it was read. Hope very soon see my old friend in London. I am very sorry Mr. Eytton is poorly. I pray to Jesus Christ to make better, and quite well, my kind friend.

The people up in the country very kind people kind lady, kind gentleman, every body kind.

Mr. Mortimer took me to Shrewsbury to Bible meeting: I was very poorly and no go to the meeting. As I came home stop two days at Mr. Bartons of Longner.

Mr. Mortimer gone down to the sea side.

Mr. Hall took me to Cotsbrook to Mr.

Whitmores; half a hundred people I believe: cooks some potatoes our country fashion; Prince Regent no cook so: he too fine, all find gold cloths.

I hope M^r Pratt got a ship ready when I com^e to London: I go aboard, a little work, and learn a little the Book: no work always. I wish as kind a captain as the Hangaroo's. Next Sunday we go to Wellington to get some more money for Missionary Society. M^r Luckock took me to see bar iron made: beautiful work! plenty iron - very large hammer! M^r King and M^r Cooper came to Madeley, me and Tom not at home: come look for us, found us seeing the iron make. I so pleased to see M^r Cooper. M^r Hall took me to china work; I made 3 cups. When I get home to my own country write back again to my 5

Ad friend M^r Pratt.

If I no see you again hope meet you in heaven if good, if bad, go down. I go home and tell my country English people the best very fond of New Zealand man. If you please M^r Pratt, I no like to mess with swearing people on board the ship.

I very glad to see my old friends M^r and M^{rs} Marsden again. I go home to my country, and go to school along with M^r Hall, and learn the Book. M^r Hall learn me to read and write.

I am,

Dear Sir,

Your obedient servant.
Teeterree.

P.S. I so sorry to leave M^r and M^{rs} Mortimer hope see them again in New Zealand.
