

to perform than I had when I brought Campbell to trial. The Judge my Determined Opponent: and he supported by all the weight, and Influence of Persons in Power, with a military Party; Officers who had just arrived, and were not aware of the local Circumstances of the Colony, and therefore more easily gave up their Opinions to the Law Officer: and have since regretted that they suffered the Judge to treat me in the manner he did, and my Cause - He tried me for three days, and not Mr. Cam.
He hoped to find some Cause of Accusation against me, but he found none. How far my Friends may approve or censure my Conduct in the whole of this affair I cannot say. I have from time to time given you every Information that appeared to me necessary. I have no Doubt but all will be well in the End. I have passed the Ordeal now. my Spirits are greatly relieved: as I think the Enemy can do me no Violence. The measures the Committee have adopted are very consulting, and I do most sincerely return the Committee Thanks for their kind Consideration; and the Honor they have done me in their Vote of Thanks; and for the Confidence they have placed in me - I have to request, that <sup>you</sup> will assure the Committee, I shall make it my constant Study to promote the Object of the Society, and to do all in my Power for the temporal and eternal Interest of those poor Heathens -
