

Ms. Kendall desires to unite with me in dutiful acknowledgments to the Honorable Committee, and to say, that as we do not wish to part with our children again, and may probably before many years more are past think it needful to remove with them into civilized and christian society, we shall feel ourselves highly obliged to the Committee "by favoring us with its opinion on this subject." We hope to be understood, that we wish to continue at New Zealand, except our removal should appear to us indispensable; in which case, we should be ready to apply ourselves to such a way of life as might be calculated to afford us a maintenance without trespassing greatly upon the funds of the Society. And we mention this we trust in submission to the will of our heavenly master, whose service we have no desire to fly from, before our work is done, or our place is better filled. We have
