

indeed been graciously preserved as a family by land and by water. We have ^{been} blessed amongst the heathen where we sojourn, and possessing their confidence, and being delivered from many troubles our cup runneth over. In all things may we trust in him who is acquainted with our wants, and is ever ready to do his needy creatures good. We have now resided four years at New Zealand. Amongst a people where thousands of our countrymen would think it ^{im}possible to live in safety for any length of time. We sleep in peace, and have all the priviledges and comforts we could expect to have in a foreign land. My sincere Christian regards to Mrs Pratt, yourself, and all inquiring friends. And am
