

the Kings Dockyard. Tettere was introduced to Sir Robt Barlow's family, the Commissioners of the Dockyard, we were all much gratified in seeing the works, we went into a ship named the Prince Regent - now building, 120 Guns, another of 110 Guns, also into the Smithery, the Saw Mill, the Rope Warehouses, and many other places, Tettere was surpris'd beyond measure to see a Machine raise 2 large pieces of Timber and then set off with ~~them~~ them without any visible propelling force, he exclaimed Deare me, New Zealand men no believe, but I believe because my own eye see. At 1 O'clk, Amiral Sir John Gore sent his Barge from his ship lying 3 miles down the River, to invite us to come and see her, she is named the Bulwar <sup>nee,</sup> the finest 74 Gun ship in his Majesty's Navy, we had twelve men to row us down and another to steer, cushion seats, Cloak, &c, on our arrival we were saluted by <sup>four</sup> 6 Guns 24 pounders, the Captain, Col Long and other Officers, with several Ladies, received and ~~the rest of our party~~ Tettere, very kindly, we taken some refreshment on board, and were shown all the wonders of this beautiful ship - Tettere fired a 24 Gun, we then left her and were again saluted by 6 Guns as before, we then proceeded to see a famous Frigate named the Siffy, just going <sup>out</sup> to sea, we were received with the same kindness and saluted by 5, 24, pound Guns, and the same when we came away.
 Mr White & I have had some talk about a Missionary association but Mr W. thinks it is not possible to be ~~now~~ at present. As Tettere and myself were going along in Rochester yesterday to the Custom House, we met Archdeacon Law, who made
