I beg leave to inform you that we have received orders this afternoon to embark on board the Boring on Monday next, we intend to set out from our lodgings at 10 o'clock a.m.
We must engage a boat in the morning to take us and our luggage to Sheerness.
Poor poor man is much better, and seems gradually to gain strength, we have every reason to believe the Lord has been pleased to sanctify his afflictions, and we pray that the Lord Jesus would bless him, more, and more, with his heavenly grace. He presents his love to Mr Pratt's family, Mr & Mrs Bickersteth Mr & Mrs Cooper
