

see rope as big as my body. See the saw mill go by steam. I see the iron waggons by steam, he took up two trees and away she goes; I sing out O dear me New Zealand man no believe, nor I, but I see with my own eye, same as the iron work: quite astonished. Go to Admirals office. he tell the boat to come. Go in the boat Mr.
Butler Mr. Hall Mr. Kemp and young Mr. Butler and Teeterree on board the flag ship the Bulwark, in the 12 oared barge. Plenty Officer, plenty cocked hat.
Fire a salute 5 Guns, shake the ship.
The Captain shew us all the decks all the rooms: the ship more clear than a house. Teeterree fire a 24 pow-nder. Then we went to kei kei. when done out, come down to the boat, and the Guns fire again. Then went on board the Lyffe Frigate, fired two salutes when going on board, and coming on shore. Captain Warren very kind gentleman: he say he like to go to New Zealand: very kind saw his daughters: plenty laugh.
