

May when he will plough with his yoke of oxen like the ancient Prophets and rejoice with the joy of Harvest, when his crops are gathered in, what will you not feel when the time shall come that he shall meet in the great congregation and worship God in Spirit and in Truth.

Consider the Honour that is put upon you, you are gone to prepare the way of the Lord, to make ready a People for him. Act in all things becoming the dignity of your Character: were the Archbishops of Canterbury & York to spend their time in low pursuits, in menial traffic how would they degrade their office: their exalted Station is not to be compared with yours. Let me exhort you to love as Brethren, bear one another's burdens, watch over one another's souls with a godly jealousy and rebuke one another daily, and the God of Peace with them befo' you, and the Gentiles amongst whom you live shall fear him.

I am with much esteem and affection Yours

Thos: Kenock, Malt,
King, Carlisle, & Gordon
