

Some are willing, others think that it would not be prudent at the present time, as the Opposition might be too strong - I am very happy God has been so gracious, as to prosper all that we have set our hands unto - No Accident has happened to the vessel, nor to any belonging to her - No Injury has been done to the natives, nor a single Circumstance occurred that can give Cause to the Enemy to blaspheme. Difficulties have been very great, and many, but they have not prevented the work from going on. Nothing has happened that can give the Society Pain. Every thing has succeeded better than the most sanguine Hopes could have warranted us to expect, in such a new and important undertaking. As the Letters will write to you by the Catharine what, you will have much
