and told them, when they could read the book which God had given to us, and which they would soon have they would then believe what I told them to be true. many other arguments they used to prove that there must be more than one God. You will see from the four young men, Jovi, Jeterrae, Jow--row, and Jovvria what their national Character is. - what are their Abilities and what their natural Disposition; for all that I have seen are very similar in most respects to these young men. Their Reasoning Faculties are strong and clear, and their Comprehension quick - when once they obtain a true Knowledge of the Scriptures, they will improve very fast, and may then be ranked with civilized Nations. Their Improvement is not doubtful, but certain; and the Society are not labouring in vain - As one of the Committee's Resolutions relative to the
