

156
The Good I came up with us we have had very fine weather ever since we left England, our Ship is very healthy at this time, and we have not lost a single person since we left England.

Dr Sir, with heartfelt sorrow I have to inform you that Teller has become very obstinate, and ungrateful he will not come to Schoole neither will he be ruled by any thing that we can say or do, Brother Hall is grieved beyond measure at his obstinacy, he finds fault with his outfit, he told Captain Lamb he had no shoes, which when we know we offered to buy him shoes or any thing else he wanted, I have begged on him in the kindest manner, and so has Mr Hall to come to schoole, but he says he will never come to schoole again.
Captain Lamb and several other Gent, have spoken to him on the impropriety of his conduct, telling him grievous