

But I do not mean to let my business fail for defects of this kind, so long as I have any means of promoting its success, — at the same time anxiously looking forward for that happy period when the Lord will reward all the labours of his faithful servants with blessings, and and glorify his own name in the salvation of the heathen With yours in best Love to Mrs Pratt and I have the honour to be

Rev^d & Dear Sir

your unworthy servant
and labourer

Wm Hall

P.S. I have had an accident by fire which has burnt all my work shops and down with a quantity of Wheat and a great part of my Tools I will be glad if you can lend me a brace and bits and a Turkey Stone
