+ when the vessels left the Coast for England

Be so good as to send a few second hand tools they will answer well. Some Hammers and other Smiths Tools, with Nails. A pious Smith would be a great Acquisition, or edge tool maker. either at the Seminary at Parramatta or in New Zealand. one in each place would be an invaluable Advantage. one or two might be got I should imagine in Birmingham, or Sheffield. Axes and Files are the principal Articles wanted yet.
 I requested Mr. Fordell to purchase for the Active some whaling Gear<sup>x</sup> for the use of the Active, and to draw upon you for the amount, which must be charged to the use of the Vessel, and to my Account. It will be of importance now to employ the Active wholly upon the Coast. as the natives to the South of the East Cape are acquainted with our views towards them, and no danger is now to be
